The purpose is to ensure that all staff can strictly and consciously carry out their work in accordance with the norms. All comrades of our association are required to treat every work with a high sense of responsibility. With high standards, strict requirements and creative handling of everything, all comrades of our association ignore fame and wealth, work without complaint, make selfless dedication, and fully embody the spirit of love and dedication.

Although we simply and briefly introduced some features and sections of our public welfare actions, the reports of the mainstream media and the echo of the international community have more far-reaching significance and communication power. This is a picture of forging ahead with the support of the government and all walks of life. It is an achievement of this innovation under the guidance of the board of directors, the board of supervisors and expert consultants. The international situation and epidemic development in 2022 are still complex and uncertain. Therefore, promoting world peace, national rejuvenation and cultural power through people's diplomacy, cultural interaction, digital public welfare and youth growth remains the theme of our public welfare charity. We have made future work plans with UNESCO and made cooperation plans with many government departments in Beijing. Responsibilities and obligations will make us more mature.
